

HIGHLINE

HIGHLINE / I3
maple
alder intarsia

Though similar at first sight, doors differ in their veneers. Elegant intarsia elements achieve a perfect harmony between different types of wood.

HIGHLINE / I3
beech

HIGHLINE – model I13

beech

Developing flexible solutions is one of the strengths that we make use of every day.

HIGHLINE / I13
maple

HIGHLINE / I13
European oak

“

WHAT IS INTARSIA?

Intarsia is a woodworking technique that uses various veneer sheets of different shapes, sizes and colours. It is considered master craftsmanship that requires an extraordinarily steady and precise hand. This decorative technique gives a special charm to products. Our company manufactures its products in accordance with this technique and has perfected it using our many years of experience and professional know-how.

DIAGRAMS OF HIGHLINE MODELS

model I3

model I13 LA

model I13

“

The form of interior doors should be influenced by the style and functional requirements of individual rooms; the goal is to improve the quality of living.